Your user temp file for this session on the BRS Text Search Server is near the limit.

As a result, the results from your last L Number could not be added to your temp file. To continue searching, you must reformulate your last search query. Define a search that is as precise as possible by using limited ($n) rather than unlimited ($) truncation and by avoiding common terms (e.g., device, process, machine, etc.). You may also logoff of WEST at this time. This will clear your temp file. To avoid reaching the limit again, reevaluate and redefine your search
